Skipton & The Yorkshire Dales

Monday 19th May 4 days - 3 nights

We try to visit as many of the hotels we use as possible and we've been to lots in Yorkshire. The Rendezvous at Skipton is one of the best hotels we've ever stayed at and certainly the best in Yorkshire. From the moment you arrive you'll be given a warm Yorkshire welcome by caring staff who'll look after you throughout your stay

The hotel's restaurant looks out on the Leeds & Liverpool Canal and you can watch the narrow boats passing through the lock as you enjoy dinner. If you're feeling like a short walk after you can walk along the towpath into the centre of Skipton, which is one Yorkshire's favourite Market Towns and has a friendly High Street stretching from the church at one end to the canal basin at the other and every inch a delight to stroll along

You might like to sit out on the hotel's roof garden terrace (see right) and enjoy a drink (or two) as you watch the sunset

Our excursions are all included in the price of your holiday & include a trip to Harrogate for lunch and over the moors to Ilkley for afternoon tea, (there's a Betty's Tea Shop in Ilkley) We'll also have a day out in the Dales with a stop at Grassington

£249.00pp
(Single Room Supplement
£45.00 per holiday)

You can book with just a
£25.00 deposit

Beautiful Buckfast - The 'So much to Do' Day Out for Everyone! £33.95pp

We'll arrive at Buckfastleigh Railway Station in plenty of time for lunch. The Station Cafe serves reasonably priced food all day and there are large gardens and a miniature railway and you can bring your own picnic to enjoy if you wish. There is a beautiful riverside walk to stroll along within the ten acre site and a Butterfly farm and Otter Sanctuary to visit

You can take the steam train from here to Totnes, where you'll find the wonderful Rare Breeds Farm right alongside the station. They also have a café serving delicious light lunches and drinks and a garden where you can enjoy your meal, relax and watch the trains coming and going. Totnes Town Centre is about a 15 minute walk but with so much to do here and at Buckfastleigh you might prefer to relax and enjoy all that the railway has to offer.

If you want to visit Buckfast Abbey the coach will take you there, it's one mile from the station and again there is so much to do there that you might want to spend all your time there. Buckfast Abbey is home to a community of Benedictine monks who lead a life dedicated to prayer, worship, work and hospitality which is why every visitor is made so welcome. The Abbey has extensive gardens, visitor centre and The Grange Restaurant serving high quality food.

Price includes, Return Steam Train Journey, Picnic Gardens, Butterfly House, Otter Sanctuary and The Rare Breeds Farm
