The coast of Eastern Essex was a popular haunt for smugglers using the Crouch and Blackwater River to land contraband from France, Holland and Belgium from 1730 to 1830 when smugglers pitted their wits against the Revenue men.

Meet your guide en-route to Malden where you'll have a chance to take tea/coffee and biscuits before embarking on the rest of your day. Malden is rich in history and no visit would be complete without visiting the Hythe Quay which is the home of the sailing barge, Malden's living heritage. After lunch, we'll find out more about Colchester which is said to be the oldest recorded town in Britain. Spend this afternoon here, maybe visit the castle, the Old Dutch Quarter or just browse the quaint shops.

We'll round off our day at the Tiptree Museum. Stroll through the museum to see where Tiptree began and experience Essex village life. Then for a special treat, wander to the Jam Shop stocking over 100 delicious varieties of jam and indulge yourself. Return to the hotel for a cream tea with a pot of Tiptree jam!
